

MADE FOR THE BEAUTY INDUSTRY

REACH.ai automatically fills your book by sending AI-driven texts and emails.

Artificial intelligence powers REACH.ai communications 24/7 to automatically fill your slow times, vacant, and cancelled appointments. A product this smart is definitely a no-brainer!

REACH.ai Performs!

More than 2,000 locations have already signed up to use REACH.ai across the US! REACH.ai has generated millions of dollars in bookings this year alone for our clients.

Finally give due and overdue clients the communication they deserve.

REACH.ai plays matchmaker with your appointment book by knowing who is due and overdue for a service. It then sends highly personalized messages to each client making it easy for them book. No more blasts or manual setup for your staff. REACH.ai knows who to message and when — every time.

Hi Ashley, it's Emily from Brieshi Salon & Spa. I see that you're overdue for an appointment. I have an opening tomorrow at 7:00pm. If you're interested, tap <https://bit.ly/1sNMwl> to book!

Targeted AI-Driven Communication

REACH.ai uses a deep-learning technology to contact the right guest at the right time based on their booking patterns. REACH.ai doesn't just send out a blind email to your guests, it finds the guest that is most likely to book and then sends them a personalized text message and/or email notifying them of the last-minute opening.

Set It and Forget It

Because REACH.ai is already INTEGRATED into your POS system it takes less than 10 minutes to set up. Once activated, it seamlessly works behind the scenes with your scheduling software freeing your team to focus on doing what they do best — providing great client service! No training or upkeep is required. REACH.ai appointments show over 95% of the time, so you can have peace of mind!

More than 95% of REACH.ai bookings show up for their appointments.
